The screenshot shows the top portion of a news article on the BusinessLine website. At the top left is the BusinessLine logo. To its right is an orange banner with the text "Get Medicine Delivered in 2 hrs." and an "Order" button. Below the logo is a navigation menu with links for HOME, BUDGET 2021, NEWS, MARKETS, COMPANIES, INFO-TECH, OPINION, SPECIALS, PORTFOLIO, and a dropdown menu for IPAB. A secondary navigation bar includes links for LATEST NEWS, PORTFOLIO, BUNK, ECONOMY, BIONICAMPUS, MONEY & BANKING, DATA FOCUS, CARTOONS, and RESOURCES. The main content area features a sub-header "Companies" and a large headline "Pharmaceutical producers' body bats for IPAB". Below the headline is the author "PT Jyothi Datta | Mumbai | Updated on March 14, 2021." and a row of social media sharing icons for Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, YouTube, WhatsApp, Email, and Messenger. The article text begins with the sub-headline "Government proposes to abolish IPAB, four other tribunals" and the first paragraph: "The Intellectual Property Appellate Board (IPAB) has found support from an unexpected quarter even as a proposal is afoot to abolish it."
